

(From left) Michelle Yeoh, Shop Field Marketing Manager of General Mills; Bryan Yeow, Loob Holdings International Business Development Director; Syahrudin; Anthony Teng, Director of Jaya Grocer; and Chin Chon Young, Head Trade Finance Transaction Banking Malaysia (CIMB) celebrating the partnership between Touch 'n Go eWallet, Mid Valley Megamall and The Gardens Mall at the launch event.

Going cashless while shopping

TNG Digital Sdn Bhd recently announced a partnership with two of the busiest shopping centres in the Klang Valley - Mid Valley Megamall and The Gardens Mall - to enable QR-payments through its Touch 'n Go eWallet ("eWallet").

At the launch event, Syahrudin Samsudin, CEO of TNG Digital Sdn Bhd said, "Shoppers can now enjoy the convenience of going cashless at Malaysia's number one shopping destination, while being rewarded with best deals from the best brands with our Touch 'n Go eWallet. We're thrilled that the management of Mid Valley Megamall and The Gardens Mall Management for being fully onboard with us. We look forward to enabling more retail outlets with our Touch 'n Go eWallet in the near future."

To kick start your cashless journey, TNG Digital will be offering RM4 million worth of Touch 'n Go eWallet reload pins from Dec 17 until 31 on a first come first serve basis. With no minimum purchase required, shoppers can get their RM10 Touch 'n Go eWallet reload pins through booths located at Level 3, Mid Valley Megamall (near Tealive) and Level 2 The Gardens Mall (near Starbucks). Shoppers can use immediately upon reload. The reload pins are only applicable for first time eWallet users.

"Cashless is the future of payments. We're here to provide a trusted, swift and convenient payment platform for all lifestyle needs," added Syahrudin.

Enjoy the benefits of going cashless at these retail outlets, including 4Fingers, Boost Juice, Caring Pharmacy, Charles & Keith, Chillis, DOME Café, GNC, Haagen Dazs, Love & Co, Mou Tak Ding, MPH Bookstores, Poh Kong, Tealive, Tumi, Sacoor Brothers, and Jaya Grocer.

The e-wallet is available for download on Apple App Store and Google Play Store. For more information, visit <https://www.tngdigital.com.my/>