Welcoming View

Posted April 7th, 2011 at 5:29 pm by Jessica Wong

Its name speaks for itself. Offering a sky scrapping-sight to behold is KL's latest rooftop bar, the uber-literal View.

Nestled at the top of GTower, View promises the most breathtaking scene of KL with the Twin Towers taking centre-stage amidst the glowing lights of Ampang Hills and Titiwangsa mountain range. The bar itself is a combination of experiential senses from the glamorous and luxurious champagne 'jewel box' room, to a contemporary single-malt whiskey lounge with individualised custody cases, to the emotive al fresco bar. While unwinding to the beat of chill lounge, guests have a broad selection of gourmet bites to go with champagnes, wines and beverages plus custom designed signature cocktails created by award winning mixologists.

So if you're planning to throw a cocktail party or impress a date, checkout View and open your eyes to another side of the city.

View opens in June 2011. For more information, head to www.view.com.my.

THE LOWDOWN

It's the little everyday things that count. JUICE forages on the scrap heap of news, trends and opinions to deliver surprisingly fragrant updates twice daily, except weekends. 'Cause that's when we party.
